

FAWCETT Side

FAWCETT. I'm Linda Fawcett, Senior Community Liaison Officer for Kennet and Avon County Council. This is my colleague, Luke Parsons.

PARSONS. Afternoon.

FAWCETT. I see, sir, you found our paperwork. I shall assume it was received and that you've read and digested the contents. Mr Byron, on March 17th you were served with an F-99 enforcement notice.

After

refusing to reply to or acknowledge receipt of six subsequent summons, this morning you were granted an optional grace period of eight hours to vacate. You now have just over two hours to submit to the enforcement notice and quit this site or you will be forcibly evicted.

Silence.

JOHNNY looks from one to the other.

JOHNNY. Tell me, Mrs Fawcett. Have we met before?

FAWCETT. Mr Byron, you know full well who I am. We've met many times.

JOHNNY. I knew it. I never forget a face.

FAWCETT. We met in Salisbury Magistrates' Court three years ago when I gave evidence against you in the dispute with my colleagues Pat Pickles.

JOHNNY (thinks). Pickles. Pickles...

FAWCETT. You trespassed on Mr Pickles's property, verbally assaulted him, stripped him bare, gagged him and locked him in his shed.

JOHNNY. It's not ringing any bells.

FAWCETT. He was in there without food or water for a week.

JOHNNY. Pickles. Short. Bald. Shifty fat bastard?

FAWCETT. Mr Pickles has high blood pressure, sir. He had no access to his medicine. He lost two and a half stone. He was severely dehydrated. He could have died.

JOHNNY. Pat Pickles should thank me. I called his GP and she said I lowered his blood pressure. She reckoned I've put a good ten years on Pat Pickles.

FAWCETT. Then six months ago you attacked my colleague Peter Hands in the foyer of the Salisbury Arts Centre during the interval of Jack and the Beanstalk.
